

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Elizabeth Bergner, 17, Chicago University freshman, saved several hundred dollars in unlocked safe when she grappled with burglar in her father's laundry, 1167 N. State st. Burglar fled.

Albert Reckert, 15, Niles, Ill. Fell off wagon. Undertaker.

Several men under arrest at Englewood station suspected of attack on Anna Hengstreet, 8, as she was on way home from school.

Matthew Kennedy, waiter, attempted to awaken Charles Johnson, carpenter, in saloon at 403 S. State st. Johnson pulled gun. Cartridges didn't explode. Arrested.

Policeman Charles Saxon, traffic cop at State and Monroe sts., severely injured by auto.

Joseph Warner, 222 Throop st., victim of two armed highwaymen. $30.

Thief forced way into home of Minnie Barker, 2442 S. State st. Held gun at her head and took $75 cash.

Police searching for Louis Anglan, missing from home of friends, 3724 Bosworth av., after writing note saying he was going to end his life.

Adolph Johnson, 1403 N. Whipple st., fined $200 and costs for throwing alarm clock at wife. Told court he struck her accidentally. Maybe Adolph was trying to alarm her.

Large water main at W. Taylor st. and S. Western av. broke. Streets in vicinity flooded.

Coroner's jury exonerated Mrs. Cora Pickett, 3147 Wentworth av., who shot and killed her husband, March 29. Self-defense.

Caesar Bronzi, 725 Washington av., fined $200 and costs for bringing his wife here from the country and making her lead a life of shame. She was formerly Louise Smith, daughter of farmer near Almont, Ia. Joseph Davinia, his companion, fined same amount as an accomplice.

Arthur Strassen, 1251 W. Lake st., teamster, arrested for disrobing to swim. Several drinks to blame.

B. Valantinia, 45, Italian laborer, arrested by game warden for killing a bird known as the great American bittern.

Chas. Pennington, 50, traveling salesman, shot and killed by Harry Farrell, machinist, in hallway of 1348 Calumet av., where both men lived. Was trying to enter Farrell's room.

Dr. W. L. Gregg, 502 S. 55th av., missing. Had recently been ordered to pay his wife $100 alimony.

Esther Bradimore, 3, 2144 W. Harrison st., fell from rear porch. Slightly hurt.

John Cashman, 69, 5450 Princeton av., fell Wednesday. Died today.

Thomas Raddan, 50, W. Harrison and S. Dearborn sts., severely hurt by auto.

Mrs. Lena Zimmerman, 40, 1104 Grand av., wants police to find her husband, George. She inherited $3,500 by death of her first husband. George, she says, spent $2,000 up to date having a good time and had disappeared with $1,500.

John Gall, owner of saloon 963 Milwaukee av., wife, Anna, and Charles Lave, bartender, arrested. Charged with pandering. Mrs. Clara Wilkosz, 22, and Miss Agnes Meeklinburdge, 20, complainants.

R. L. Reid, brother of W. R. Reid, secretary of Marshall & Huschart Machinery Co., 17 S. Jefferson st., held to grand jury, charged with sending indecent matter through mails to his wife. $3,000 bonds.

T. P. Keyes, 45, real estate dealer, 35 S. Dearborn st., arrested, charged with operating confidence game. Owen Young, 2962 Indiana av., complainant.

Tony Garcowitch, 2503 Princeton av., seriously injured with hammer by John O'Hearn, 4122 N. Sacramento av. Accidental.

John Williams, 19, 23 W. 28th st., negro, arrested, charged with being store thief.

John Madden, 52, ex-secretary of